Wines we Love
BY THE GLASS

There's no better companion for our food and table than these Italian beauties we've selected – delicious, unpretentious, and crafted for conversation and sharing experiences. They make everything better.

BIANCO

light-bodied

Alto Adige
Pinot Grigio
Bollini - A vibrant, well-balanced Pinot, done right. 11 | 42

Sardinia
Vermentino
Vigne Surrau - Think Sauvignon Blanc with Mediterranean minerality and salinity: fresh and bright. 12 | 46

Alto Adige
Chardonnay
St. Michael - Juicy, elegant, alpine, clean finish, lightly oaked. 12 | 46

Campania
Falanghina
Il Poggio - Southern Italy's secret white: rich, round, and adventurous- completely its own thing. 10 | 40

full-bodied

Puglia
Fiano
Li Veli - Intensely aromatic, juicy, and crisp. Southern Italy at its best. 13 | 50

ROSÉ & BUBBLES

light-bodied

Veneto
Rosé
Bardolino Classico - Light, dry, and fresh, with a strawberry vibe. 11 | 42

Veneto
Prosecco
Torresella - Extra dry, clean, light, easy bubbles. 10 | 40

Emilia-Romagna
Lambrusco
Cleto Chiarli - Fresh, fruity, semi-sweet, lightly sparkly. Served chilled. 12 | 46

full-bodied

Piedmonte
Moscato di Asti DOCG
Stella Rosa - Sweet, delicate, fruity, smooth, lightly bubbly. Low alcohol content. 12 | 46

ROSSA

light-bodied

Piedmonte
Dolcetto Riserva DOP

Wines we Love
BY THE BOTTLE
A small but mighty list

BIANCO

light-bodied

Piedmonte
Sauvignon Blanc
Marchesi di Gresy - Piedmonte's take on Sauvignon Blanc: Leaner, more mineral, grassy, clean. 45

Sicily
Etna Bianco
Cantine Nicosia - Grown on the slopes of Mt. Etna: Volcanic minerality, vibrant, refined... 52

Veneto
Soave Classico
Vignealte - From the volcanic hills outside Venice. Dry, crisp, and lively. If you like Pinot Grigio, you'll love this. 39

Piedmonte
Arneis Roero
Vietti - An ancient Piedmonte grape almost lost to history: Uniquely balanced, persistent, worth finding. 56

Umbria
Chardonnay
Antinori Bramito - Round, elegant, lightly oaked. 64

Lombardy
Trebbiano
Zenato - White burgundy territory: textured, almond, long finish. 48

Campania
Greco di Tufo
The grape the Greeks brought to Italy: Rich, stony minerality, complex. Your new favorite white. 85

full-bodied

Lombardy
Franciacorta - organic
Pizzini - Italy's answer to Champagne: Same methods, same complexity, half the attitude. If you love champagne... 78

BOTTLED WATER

S.Pellegrino Sparkling Water 8 (1L)

Acqua Panna Still 8 (1L)

ROSSA

light-bodied

Sicily
Etna Rossa
Grows 2,000 feet high on Mt. Etna. Drinks like a lighter, more volcanic Pinot Noir. One of Sicily's most exciting wines. 52

Piedmonte
Barbaresco docg
Orlando Abrigo - The Queen of Italian wines. An expressive nebbiolo that's softer, riper, and more layered, and she knows it. 82

Tuscany
Brunello di Montalcino
Santa Giulia - Possibly Italy's greatest red. Dried cherries, leather, earth, patient, powerful, worth it. 89

Piedmonte
Barolo docg
Virna - The king of wines, the wine of kings. Robust, exuberant, and refined. The burgundy lover's barolo. 120

Tuscany
Tignanello
The Super Tuscan that started it all. A beautiful blend of Sangiovese, Cabnernet, and Cab Franc aged in French oak. Celebratory. 250

Basilicata
Aglianico
Cannetto - The South's answer to barolo and brunello. Bold, balanced, and adventurous. 56

Puglia
Primitivo
Salento - Often described as the cousin to Red Zinfandel, with Puglia personality. Juicy, sophisticated, plush. 42

Tuscany
Baby Sassicaia
Tenuta San Guido - Celebrated Super Tuscan blend of cabernet and merlot. Silky, approachable, delicious. 120
